

FACTS

WHAT DOES IFG ADVISORY, LLC DO WITH YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION?

Why?

Financial companies choose how they share your personal information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share, and protect your personal information. Please read this notice carefully to understand what we do.

What?

The types of personal information we collect and share depend on the product or service you have with us. This information can include:

- Social Security number, name, address and date of birth
- account numbers and information about your income
- credit scores and income tax information

When you are no longer our customer, we continue to share your information as described in this notice.

How?

All financial companies need to share customers' personal information to run their everyday business. In the section below, we list the reasons financial companies can share their customers' personal information; the reasons IFG Advisory, LLC chooses to share; and whether you can limit this sharing.

IFG Advisory, LLC

What we do

How does IFG Advisory, LLC protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. We maintain physical, electronic and procedural safeguards to protect your nonpublic personal information. This includes measures to protect your information in the course of its disposal.

How does IFG Advisory, LLC collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- open an account or fill out an application or other forms with us
- execute transactions with us, our affiliates or others, such as the custodian(s) of your account(s)

OR

- Information we receive from non-affiliated third parties, including consumer reporting agencies.

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes— information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.
